Director's Report-

- Discussion with Scott about fall maintenance needs.
- Linn County Librarians met and new officers were elected. They are planning a meeting in December with the supervisors and local boards at Hiawatha. Springville will host the librarians on June 6.
- Only Cedar Rapids has an ethics statement for their board members, the rest of the libraries rely on the Trustees Handbook for guidance for the library trustees.
- Starting up Early Out Wednesdays again.
- Red Cedar Chamber will be at the library on September 24, with the Friends paying for the concert.

- There is a new display for Brain Fuse and will speak with the superintendent about promoting this free service to the teachers and students.
- Annual survey is due October 30, director's goal is to have done by September 30.

No president's report.

No committee reports.
