Tag-Less Tuesdays

Starting on July 3rd, 2018

Garbage Pick up Day changes to Tuesday.

GARBAGE

You can continue to use your current garbage can and recycling bin. Please do not load more than 40 pounds.

In place of tags, your solid waste portion of your water bill will be $12.75 per month to cover all the garbage and recycling pickup. Yard waste fees will not change.

Tag-less Tuesdays means no more tags are needed for garbage.

Tag-less Tuesdays also means garbage pick up will be on Tuesdays instead of Wednesdays. It is highly recommended that you have your garbage/recycling out Monday night.

The new vendor is Wapsi Waste. Wapsi will pickup two cans and recycling from your curb.

RECYCLING

Newspaper, cans, aluminum, plastic, paper, cardboard, magazines, paper bags, are all picked up as recycling.

Glass, such as bottles, jars, or containers, are not picked up. Glass items have a high insurance expense and are too costly to be hauled.

Window glass, mirrors, light bulbs, pottery, cookware and ceramics are also not recyclable.

Plastic shopping bags are not recyclable and can jam the recyclable sorting machines. Please do not put plastic shopping bags in your recycling.

No changes to

YARD WASTE

Springville's Yard Waste have been made. Residents can still take their leaves, grass and smaller branches to the Yard Waste site.

THANK YOU SPRINGVILLE

The City wants to thank the Springville community for your patience in our major street/sewer project. There have been many inconveniences with road closures, blockages and water loss. All of these have been necessary to make these improvements to our town. Your patience has been much appreciated!

A STROLL THROUGH THE HIS

Boxwells lived on Springville's South Side, 1920s to 1950s

Readers have reported two South Side locations for Charlie and Mae Boxwell. One was on the northeast corner of High Avenue and Fifth Street, now a vacant lot. The other, 312 High Ave., is Dennis and Susan Denny's address, the northeast corner of High Avenue and Fourth Street.

The abstract for 312 High Ave. shows that Mae Wiles Boxwell inherited this property, with a house that is no longer standing, from her uncle, Daniel W. Shellhammer. At 92, he died May 27, 1928. Boxwells had come to Springville at least three years before his death.

They were in Dunkerton July 22, 1923, for son William Orville's birth. On May 10, 1925, Bertha was born in Springville. Others were Margaret, born in 1913; Eunice, 1915; and Dorothy, 1921.

Behind (north of) the Boxwell home was a barn that housed several milk goats, plus two small mules that hauled coal, gravel, and other material. Charlie did various odd jobs. Dave Kelley of Springville said the family drank goat milk, but he thought they did not sell it to customers.

Charlie's goats grazed in ditches

Springville residents of a certain age might recall Charlie's goats tethered to graze in ditches. Goats could be seen in front of the Butler farm south of Springville, and along the highway west of town (151 was two lanes then, with much lighter traffic).

Three Boxwell girls graduated from Springville High School – Margaret in 1931; Eunice, 1935; and Dorothy, 1939. Margaret, first to marry, became Mrs. John E. Wilcox in 1936. In the 1940 census, only Bill and Bertha were at home. During World War II, Bill was in the Navy.

On March 30, 1950, Mae Boxwell was granted a divorce. She received the family home, and $15 per week alimony. Charlie had to pay court costs, including $100 for Mae's attorney. Reason for the divorce is unknown.

Charlie and Mae eventually moved to Monticello. They apparently remarried, as their names, followed by "wife and husband," appear on a Sept. 30, 1966, warranty deed for sale of the 312 High Avenue property. The buyer was Carl Denny, father of Dennis.

Charlie Boxwell, 77, died in February 1968. Mae died at 86 in November 1973. They are buried side by side in Monticello's Oakwood Cemetery. In Springville, memories of Charlie and his goats live on.

(Thanks to the Rev. Anna Mae Peck and Dennis & Susan Denny for research help.)

Boxwell brothers were Colorado natives

Charles Lennox Boxwell Jr. was born in Colorado Dec. 29, 1890. His Iowa-born father, Charles L. Boxwell Sr., headed west from the Linn Grove area at age 31 for his health. In Colorado Springs, he met Mary Hole, a native of England. They married Nov. 18, 1885.

The couple moved to La Junta, Otero County, where sons William and Charles Jr. were born. Both parents died of pneumonia in March 1900, orphaning their boys at 12 and 9. Later that year, the brothers moved to Iowa. They lived at Linn Grove with their widowed grandmother, Elizabeth Huston Boxwell, a native of Scotland.

Charlie's brother, William Huston Boxwell, was born May 5, 1887. He married Lueretta Amy Eldred (Steve Eldred's great aunt) in 1908. Their children were Carmen (Mrs. Harold Palmer), Willard, Lloyd, and Lolen. William died Dec. 22, 1918, in the flu epidemic. He never saw his youngest son, Lolen, born July 6, 1919.

HISTORY OF SPRINGVILLE, IOWA

96 years ago, baby girl thrown into creek by accident

The following article is from the Springville New Era April 27, 1922. The story was in the Mount Vernon Hawkeye dated one week earlier, and also in the Cedar Rapids paper.

"When Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gray and party were thrown into a swollen creek down a ten-foot bank, by the soft earth of a new grade giving way under their automobile, their ten-week-old baby floated away down the stream but was later rescued unharmed.

"Mr. and Mrs. Gray, who reside on the Dr. Parker farm east of Lisbon; the baby; and a cousin were driving north of Lisbon when the accident happened. It was necessary to break the glass of the windshield in order that the occupants might escape, but none of the party suffered injury in the mishap."

Story has Springville connection

Mrs. Gray, the former Bessie Leola Wild, was a half sister of Bernita Wild Andersen of Springville. In April 1922, Bessie was 22, Bernita 2. Bessie's parents were William K. and Lucy Day Wild. Bessie, born July 29, 1900, married Lloyd H. Gray, a native of Peoria, Ill.

Their baby, Betty Maldean Gray, was born March 3, 1922. She was no more than six and a half (not 10) weeks old when she almost drowned. In the 1940 census, Lloyd, Bessie, and Betty, 18, were living on Elm Street in Anamosa. Betty was the Grays' only child.

Lloyd Gray died in October 1954 at Lebanon, Ind. Bessie died Oct. 13, 1966, at Cedar Rapids. Both are interred in Cedar Memorial Park Cemetery, Cedar Rapids. Their daughter Betty married Frank August Mortier, nine years her senior. Bernita recalled that the Mortiers moved from Cedar Rapids to Indiana, either Lebanon or Whitestown.

Betty and Frank Mortier had three daughters, Bernita said. Frank was manager of the J. C. Penney store in Lebanon. After he died in May 1989, Betty moved to Zionsville, an Indianapolis suburb. She died April 11, 2000 – 78 years after her near-drowning in an Iowa creek.

William Wild's children: Bessie Gray's full sister was Izetta Opal Wild Helbig, born in 1904. William Wild married his second wife, Lydia Wilhelmina "Mina" Muenstermann, in 1918. Their children were Bernita Wild (1920-2013), who married Kenneth Andersen, and Robert B. Wild (1922-1955) of California.

William K. Wild, his first wife Lucy, and their daughter Bessie Leola, later Mrs. Lloyd Gray.

(Undated - 1902?)

William Wild, an Englishman's son

William K. Wild was the third of 13 children of David Wild, a native of Cumberland County, England. David, born in 1836, came to the U. S. in 1858, living in Dubuque and Grant County Wis. He married Mary Ann Kay, and was in the Eighth Wisconsin Infantry in the Civil War.

He and his family moved to Linn County, Iowa, in 1868 and settled on a farm in Section 8, Brown Township (northwest of Whittier). David resided there 42 years. After losing his wife in 1909, he moved to Springville. David Wild died Aug. 31, 1920.

David's children, besides William, were Sarah "Sade" Pearson, Grace Calvert, Jennie Smith, John A. S. Wild, Charles S. Wild, Alice Cooper, George H. Wild, Rosa Mae Hakes, Edd Wild, and Leona, Bernita, and Fred

"IT HAS BEEN PROVEN by repeated trials that the disposal of rotten eggs, spoiled oranges and bananas, old banana stems and such rubbish and refuse cannot be satisfactorily accomplished by attempting to burn them in open bonfires on the streets and alleys, and we hope that our citizens will discontinue the practice."

(Springville New Era, May 7, 1914)

Historical Society meets again in September

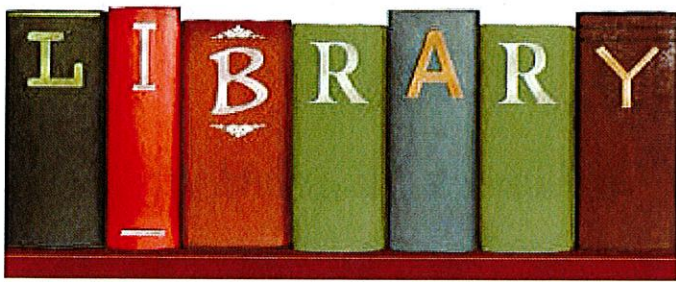

The Springville Area Historical Society (SAHS) will not meet in July and August. The next meeting will be Sept. 11 at 6:30 p.m. in the SAHS building, next door to City Hall. Anyone interested is invited.

At the June 12 meeting, Tim Stanek was a guest. He displayed crockery advertising items from Hodgins' store in Whittier, an advertising flyer from Yocom and Sterner's store in Springville, and a 1906 Linn County map.

Tim and SAHS member Phil Randall shared their knowledge of stores in Whittier. Phil's parents, Ivan and Mildred, owned the Whittier store from about 1946 to 1956. They bought it from Pete Kinkead, and sold it to Lester and Reva Hoffman.

In other business, the group discussed changes in bylaws. Also attending were president James Crow, vice president Wes Bender, Doug Beard, Dixie Brady, Rick Heeren, Bob and Shirley Parker, and Karen Randall.

The library will be closed on Wednesday, July 4 to recognize Independence Day. We will re-open Thursday, July 5th at 10:00. Have a happy and safe holiday.

Family Movie Night

Last month we kicked off our newest program, Family Movie Night. With our drop down screen, our great projector, and our success with Early Out Wednesday movie days, we decided to expand it to a monthly event. One night a month we will show a movie, free of charge here at the library, complete with snacks and drinks. These movies will be for the general public, so nothing rated above PG. We love reaching out to our community and providing events like these to our patrons. Our next movie is scheduled for Friday, July 20 at 6:30 PM, with the movie playing to be announced. Please come join us for our feature presentation!

We've been enlightened

If you've visited us at all in the last couple of weeks, you may have noticed a small change. We have seen the light, and made the switch to LED bulbs. The library feels like a whole new, not to mention brighter, building. Big thanks to Total Illumination in Marion for their hard work in making our building the brightest it can be. If you haven't seen our update yet, be sure to check it out soon.
