Price Increase

The Springville Cemetery will be increasing the cost of their burial plots. The price will go from $350 to $500. Prices will take affect April 1, 2017. To purchase a plot, please stop by or call City Hall.

PARKING PROBLEMS

City Hall has taken many calls and complaints about the parking congestion up on Mill and Broadway, especially during activities at the high school. Both the City and the school district are aware of the situation, but neither entity can enforce the unlawful parking. If you see vehicles parked illegally, you need to call the sheriff's department. They are the only ones that can do anything about it. The City can post signs and the school can make announcements, but the sheriff's department is the only one that can enforce it. The number to call if you need to report a situation is 319-398-3911.

DO YOU REMEMBER WHEN...

'Window to the past' provided by Fred Butler

Banker Charles F. "Fred" Butler, grandson of Springville pioneer Isaac Butler, had a keen interest in local history. Following are excerpts from his "Do You Remember?" article in the Springville New Era Dec. 10, 1925.

"When Fred Butler was a little fellow . . . running around barefoot with a hickory shirt and a pair of overalls, Mrs. Hannah Fawley said he was the dirtiest and snottiest kid in Brown Township." [Hannah Case (1843-1930) was born in Auburn, N.Y. She married Samuel Fawley at Springville in 1865, when Fred Butler was 8.]

"In the fall . . . George Starky, Len Christman, Wat Winans, and Alvah Butler used to go nutting down to Linn Grove and their manner of traveling was with a yoke of cattle and a lumber wagon." [All were born in the 1850s. Alvah Butler, Fred's brother, died in 1876 at 19. Leonard Christman became a Springville storekeeper. Watson Winans moved to Meade, Kan. George Starkey returned to his native Ohio.]

"Hosea White lived on the farm and there was a family of 11 boys . . . Hosea made all the boots and shoes for the whole family." [White (1819-1901) and his second wife, Elizabeth, moved to Springville from Lee County in 1849. He had learned shoemaking in his native Stanstead, Quebec.]

"When the stage coach run (sic) between Dubuque and Cedar Rapids . . . the Bruce house was the stopping place for travelers and a change in horses. Four horses were attached to the coach." [Bruce House hotel was built in 1855 on the northwest corner of Broadway and First Avenue. Owners were Harvey and Mary Jane Bruce from Ohio.]

"(Two) log cabin(s) located where W. E. Bell and Ed Yocom now live, and brush and trees grew up around them. Anson Jones lived in one and Pierce Jones in the other one." [The Bell and Yocom houses were on the site of today's

This photo of the Bruce House hotel in Springville is from the 1911 Linn County History, Vol. 1. Built in 1855, it served in later years as a café and a rental home. The building was razed about 1950. It stood on the approximate site of the former Casey's store, now owned by Grimleys.

Presbyterian Church parking lot. Anson Jones (1796-1875) was the father of Pierson Jones (1829-1903).]

"The first person buried in the Springville cemetery, when it was fenced in with rails . . . was the daughter of Samuel Brown, living west of town . . ." [Mary Frances Brown, 23, died July 2, 1858. However, there were at least 18 earlier burials.]

"When you was (sic) a boy on the farm and in the fall . . . on a cold frosty morning, you went to the pasture for the cows barefooted, and made the cow get up from the ground and you stood where she got up and warmed your cold feet."

"Jim Kelly was drowned . . . crossing Crow Creek near Viola on horseback. There had been a heavy rain and (the creek) was a raging torrent." [Horse dealer Charles W. Kelley, 24, drowned June 23, 1890. His grave is in Jordan's Grove Cemetery. The horse died also.]

"Elwood Gregg was a blacksmith here and what a powerful man, he could lift the front of a heavy horse with his strong arms." [Gregg (1837-1931) came to Springville from Ohio in 1853. In the 1870s, he and his wife Sarah moved to Hoxie, Kan. Sarah died in 1919. Elwood then went to California; he died at San Diego, age 93.]

Who was Fred Butler?

Charles Frederick "Fred" Butler was the son of Joseph and Maria Reneau Butler. He was born Dec. 8, 1857, on the Butler farm south of Springville. Fred married Clara Burger on Christmas Day 1885, and was president of the Exchange (State) Bank over 42 years. He died July 27, 1941, after breaking a hip.

Fred and Clara had one daughter, Margaret Butler Emmons, and two foster sons, Frederick Hillis Butler and Charles Kenneth "Tim" Butler. In 1909, Butler Park was given to Springville by Fred Butler in memory of his father.

Dinosaur Sightings

We've added to our dinosaur collection. Our T-Rex has been joined by a stegosaurus and a dimetrodon. They are suspended from the ceiling in our children's room, so they're hard to miss. We also have a large collection of books about dinosaurs. This has been such a fun experience for us and we are very, very grateful for the volunteers that made this happen. So come wander through the dinosaur habitat, you'll be glad you did.
