A STROLL THROUGH THE HIS

In 1838, Crow and Kelley families came to Brown Township

Eighteen decades have passed since the first two families settled in Brown Township. On April 10, 1838, John Crow, 46; his second wife, Docia, 42; and six of John's children arrived. Samuel and Jane Kelley, in their twenties with two little ones, also arrived that spring – exact date unknown.

JOHN CROW was born in Orange County, N. C. He and Mary Millis were married June 20, 1815, in Indiana (also Orange County). In 1834, they and their eight children moved to Illinois, living briefly in Chicago, Joliet, and Geneva. Mary, 42, died Jan. 9, 1836. The next year, her two oldest children, Edward and Garrison, went to Iowa.

John married Docia Hill before they moved to Iowa. He was in Brown Township only three years, and was a justice of the peace. At 49, he died March 31, 1841, and was buried in Wilcox Cemetery near Viola. In 1850, Docia was living in Jones County with a stepdaughter.

Of the Crow siblings, Wesley moved to Wisconsin; Nelson, Minnesota; and Garrison and his sister Polly (Mrs. Charles White), California. Edward, Hester, Nancy and John Crow Jr. stayed in Linn or Jones counties, Iowa. (Hester and Nancy married brothers, Julius and Truman Peet.)

SAMUEL KELLEY was born Oct. 1, 1813, probably in Champaign County, Ohio. He married Jane Gillilan about 1834 in Ohio. She was a native of Greenbrier County, W. Va. Their first child, Margaret, was born in Ohio; the second, William, in Indiana.

Eleven more children, including twin boys, were born in Iowa. (Only three of the 13 children were girls.) In 1843, Samuel served on a committee to organize the Democratic Party in Brown Township. Horace Brown and Isaac Butler were among other members.

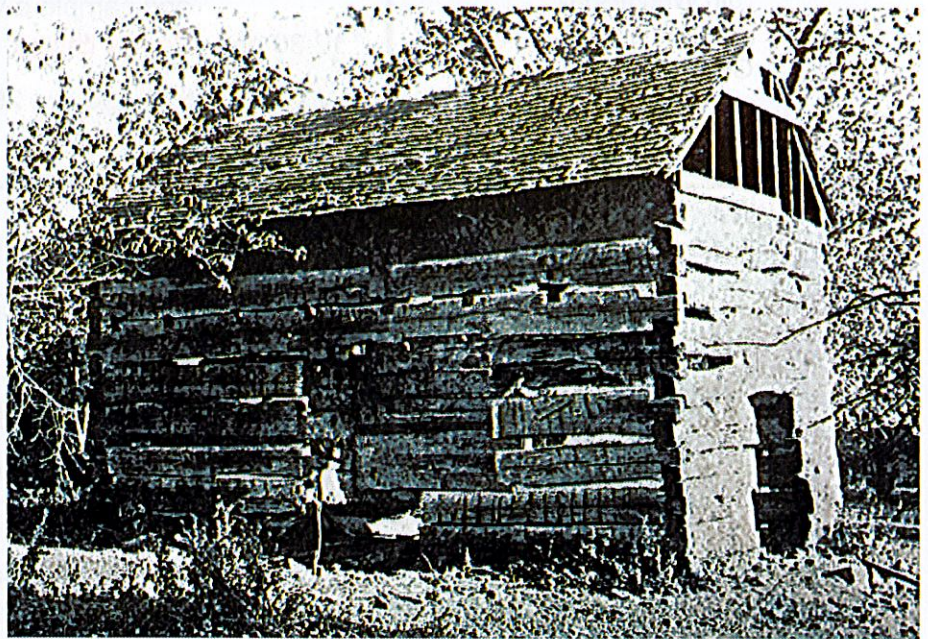

The Kelley farm was along Big Wood Road, which ran through Viola from north-east to southwest. After about 16 years in Linn County, Samuel and Jane moved in 1854 to Cass Township, Jones County. Their two youngest, George and Liona, were born there.

The Kelleys were still in Jones County for the 1870 census. Sometime after that, Samuel (with Jane?) went to Glidden in Carroll County. At 65, Samuel died there April 30, 1879. His obituary said nine children survived him, but didn't mention Jane, although she was living.

In 1880, Jane was 65 and residing with her bachelor son Ansel in Buchanan County. The census listed her as insane, but her occupation as keeping house.

Five years later, the census found Jane and Ansel Kelley in Union Township, Crawford County. (Ansel's twin, Hansel, had died at 7.) Jane died between 1885 and 1900. Ansel Kelley was last heard of in 1900, living in Monona County.

(Thanks to the Rev. Anna Mae Peck for research assistance)

The pioneers of Brown Township lived in log cabins similar to this one. It belonged to Barney and Betsy McShane, who came from Pennsylvania in the early 1850s. They were the great-grandparents of the late Aubrey McShane, who died at 101.

TWO CROW BROTHERS married three Lane sisters. Wesley Crow's wife was Fanny Lane. Nelson Crow married Eliza Lane, and (after a divorce) her sister Amanda. Father of the brides was Hiram Lane, son of Tamar Brown and her first husband. Hiram was a stepson of Tamar's third husband, Revolutionary War veteran Nathan Brown, and a half brother of Horace N. Brown. (And you thought modern families were complicated!)

TORY OF SPRINGVILLE, IOWA

Edward M. Crow, early Linn pioneer

Edward Millis Crow, eldest child of John and Mary Crow, was 21 when he came to Iowa as a bachelor, nine months ahead of his father and stepmother. On July 4, 1837, he claimed Sections 13 and 14 in Brown Township, Linn County (Viola area). Edward thought he was the county's first settler; this is disputed. His brother Garrison, also single, joined him in August 1837.

Later, Edward moved to Buffalo Township, north of Brown. He reached age 78, outlived three wives (Elizabeth Bennett, Narcissa Bowman, and Sarah Green), and fathered eight sons and four daughters. Edward died July 26, 1894. His grave is in Wilcox Cemetery near Viola.

Crow's youngest died in 1955

Orpha Belle Leaf, youngest child of pioneer Edward M. Crow, died at Springville Dec. 6, 1955. Mrs. Leaf, 84, was the widow of James H. Leaf. After he died, she lived on Fifth Avenue with her daughter Fannie (Mrs. Jay V. Patten). Mrs. Leaf is buried in the Springville Cemetery.

Besides Mrs. Patten, Mrs. Leaf was survived by three other daughters: Pearl Hall, Ethel Hart, and Irene Breckinridge.

The day the goats escaped

From Springville news in Central City News-Letter, Jan. 16, 1941: "There was considerable excitement on the south side Monday morning when the fence at the goat farm gave way and let all the goats out. One Billy . . . started for the home of a near neighbor and . . . jumped through the screened-in porch. He was given a cold reception, so he went on to the highway.

"Whether he was hoping to catch a ride out of town . . . or go on to the DX station on the corner for a visit with Earl George, we will never know. His plans were interrupted when Marshal McKee appeared on the scene and told Billy where to head in. The rest of the herd took the hint."

Postscript: A man named Boxwell was the goat owner. Does anyone remember where on the south side he lived? Please call Karen Taylor, 854-7422.

Brown monument fund is growing

The Springville Area Historical Society (SAHS) will meet May 8 at 6:30 p.m. in the SAHS building, next door to City Hall. Anyone interested in local history is welcome.

At the April 10 meeting, treasurer Jean Schmidt announced that a memorial gift has been given by the family of the late Aubrey McShane. SAHS voted to apply it to restoration of the Nathan Brown monument. The fund has now exceeded $1,000, and SAHS is grateful to all donors.

Bev Franks said an application for a $15,000 grant has been submitted to the Linn County Historical Preservation Commission by the Mayflower Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR). She added that the national DAR will make a $5,000 grant if the amount is matched by other donors.

Wes Bender, vice president and a veteran, reported he has met with Mike Vogt, curator of the Gold Star Military Museum at Camp Dodge, who has referred Wes to possible sources of funding for the restoration.

Bev has located names of two descendants of Nathan Brown. They are Annette Brown of Houston and Ralph Brown Martin of Covina, Calif., first cousins to each other. Nathan was their four-greats grandfather. Both are descended from his daughter Harriet (1816-1869), who married Solomon Peckham.

SAHS president James Crow showed two undated photos of Civil War veterans' reunions of Company C, 24th Iowa Infantry. One photo has all 18 names. James' in-laws rented a farm once owned by Bert Gibson, son of veteran Benjamin Gibson.

Nathan Brown is our soldier

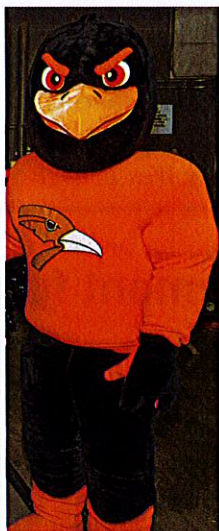

Nathan Brown is Springville's own Revolutionary War soldier, interred in the Springville Cemetery. Springville individuals, organizations, and businesses can show their pride by helping to restore his badly deteriorated monument. A fund has been established at the Exchange State Bank. Donations of any amount are welcome. Many thanks!

ORIOLE NEWS

She's Going to Disney World!

Springville's very own Oriole Mascot, Dara Hoskins, has been named as a finalist by Varsitybrands as the MOST SPIRITED MASCOT! Dara brought a lot of spirit and enthusiasm to our football and basketball games this year. She is very deserving of this award. The awards will be presented in Orlando, Florida, May 11th - 14th. Congratulations for being nominated!

CAUTION

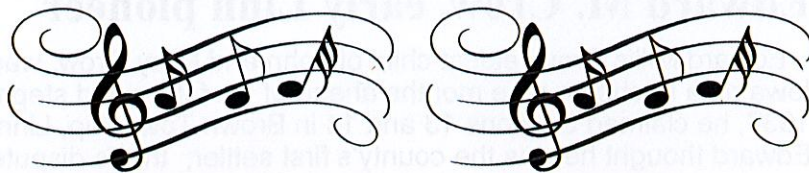

Due to the construction 5th Street will become a "ONE WAY" street from the South (1st Ave) going North (towards the bridge). It would be best to avoid traveling on 5th Street if at all possible.

The elementary entrance will be open. It will be a one way from the south entrance (closest to the high school) to the north exit (by the bridge) during this time.

During the time the students load and unload we ask that you DO NOT pass the school buses. This is for the safety of our students which is our number one priority.

These procedures will be in place until the end of the school year unless modifications are needed to make this as smooth as possible. If they are needed we will notify everyone immediately! Thank you all for your patience!

The Springville MS/HS Spring Concert will be held, Tuesday, May 15th at 6:00PM in the high school auditorium. This concert will feature the bands and choirs. Awards will also be presented that evening. Please plan on attending and enjoying a night of music.

SOLID WASTE/RECYCLING CONTRACT UPDATE

Rudd Sanitation Inc. is our current solid waste hauler for the City of Springville. They collect garbage and recycling from residential properties. Their current contract with the City expires on June 30, 2018. The City Council has decided not to renew the contract. They reviewed different services and awarded the new contract to Wapsi Waste. Look for updates in the June issue, our city website, Facebook and the back of your June water bill. The solid waste collection rules will be changing. We recommend to not over buy the garbage tags until we get details about the new solid waste collection contract.

TIME TO GET THOSE SUMMER PROJECTS DONE

Spring is FINALLY here! Don't wait to get out there to enjoy the season. Along with the nice weather and opportunities to enjoy it, come the projects that you intend to get done. Most of us enjoy grilling and outdoor living during these months and quite a few of us will look into adding a deck, patio, pool, fence, fire pit and other outdoor amenities to our property at this time of year. This is a reminder that you need to plan ahead and keep all safety requirements in mind before you start that project. Get all necessary permits. Call Iowa One Call before you dig, dial 811 at least 48 hours in advance. Be mindful of overhead power lines. Know where your property boundaries are. Do not create an eyesore for your neighbors, if it cannot be finished in a week-end, clean it up. With a little planning and safety measures we all can enjoy the new season; your projects can be accomplished smoothly without upsetting neighbors or encountering dangerous situations unnecessarily. Please be safe and GET OUT THERE.
