Oct. 10 ceremony for Newman, lost at sea

On Oct. 10, a plaque will be dedicated at the Springville Cemetery in memory of Robert L. Newman, who died in the Korean War. The public is welcome at the short 10 a.m. ceremony. American Legion Post 331 will participate, and Anna Mae Peck of Cedar Rapids, formerly of Springville, will sing the Navy Hymn.

Kim Shipley of Cedar Rapids, Newman's distant cousin, will also take part. There are no closer relatives, since Newman had no children, nieces, or nephews.

He was one of eight crew members lost at sea Dec. 26, 1952, when a Navy bomber's engines failed and it crashed off the coast of North Korea. Four men were rescued by a U. S. destroyer, and two crewmen's bodies were recovered. The plane was based at Iwakuni, Japan.

A 1948 Springville High School graduate, Bob was the son of Hubert "Stub" and Elizabeth Soper Newman. He joined the Navy in 1950 and was stationed at Whidbey Island, Wash. His schoolmate, Norman Nielsen, visited him before Newman was sent to Japan and Nielsen to Alaska with the Army.

Halloween is Here

The community will be observing trick-or-treating on Tuesday, October 31st. Please be watchful of all the kids in costumes. If you would like to welcome these little guests, please have your porch light on so they know it is safe to come to your door.

DO YOU REMEMBER WHEN...

Matsell siblings lived in Mexico, England, several U.S. states

Mrs. Mary Finn was born in England in 1798, lived in New York City, and died in Iowa 160 years ago. Her grave is in Hazel Knoll Cemetery north of Viola. Few know her link to a notable early part-time resident of Linn County.

She was the sister of George W. Matsell, a New York City police chief. In the 1850s, he bought Iowa land and built a large summer home overlooking the Wapsipinicon River in Buffalo Township. Oct. 26 will be the 206th anniversary of his birth.

Mary was 19 and George going on 6 when they arrived in the U. S. from England in July 1817 with their parents, four siblings, and grandmother. Another Matsell child was born in New York City, where the family settled.

As a widow, Mary came to Iowa about 1856 with her son, Matthew D. Finn Jr. A carpenter, he helped build the Matsell mansion. Mary died Oct. 19, 1857. Her brother George donated land for Hazel Knoll.

Mary and George's siblings were William, born in 1800; Susan, 1802; Augustus, 1813; Elizabeth, 1817; and Henry (Harry), about 1820. Like his father, William Matsell was a tailor, but nothing else is known.

In 1846, Susan's husband, James Fiora, was appointed U. S. Consul to Manchester, England. Susan died there in 1857, the same year as her sister Mary. (Ardwick Cemetery, the Fioras' burial place, was destroyed in 1965 to make a soccer field.)

Augustus owned a Manhattan bookstore, then went to California in the late 1840s. He returned to New York City in September 1850 to marry Margaret Augusta Smith. They moved to Acapulco, Mexico. On March 15, 1852, when their baby Paula was not yet two months old, Augustus died at 38.

Elizabeth Matsell and Joseph Sweet, a ladder-maker, were married in 1841 by New York City Mayor Robert H. Morris. Joseph apparently died before 1874, the year Elizabeth wed Frederick Aldridge. Elizabeth died after June 1890.

Harry was a lieutenant in the Mexican War, 1846-48. He married Augustus' widow in June 1854 in New York. They lived in California, Wisconsin, and Kansas. Widowed, Harry moved to the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers in Virginia. He died in 1898 and was interred in Hampton (Va.) National Cemetery.

A foot injury was blamed for George W. Matsell's death July 25, 1877, at his New York City home. He was 65. He left a widow, Ellen, and four unmarried adult children. All are buried in Manhattan's Trinity Church Cemetery – far from the quiet Iowa grave of Mary Finn.

Butler friendship with Matsells

An article about George W. Matsell in the July 1924 Palimpsest, Iowa history journal, stated: "C. F. Butler of Springville relates that in company with his father, Joseph Butler, he was a frequent visitor in the Matsell home and was on friendly terms with the boys (George Jr., Gus, and Harry).

"He remembers particularly the immense stature of the father Matsell, who must have weighed 300 pounds. He always rode in the back seat of a carriage built especially for his use." George Matsell died in 1877, when C. F. (Fred) Butler was 20.

Matsell mice, and adoption offer

Mrs. Mary Jane Kohl Smith of Cedar Rapids, a 1936 Springville High School graduate, shared a Matsell story told by her grandmother. As children in the 1870s, the grandmother (also named Mary Jane) and her sister Amanda were hired to catch mice at the Matsell place. The pay was 2 cents per mouse.

Cats would have been more efficient, but "Miss Susie," unmarried daughter of George W. Matsell, perhaps liked children better. She wanted to adopt Mary Jane, but the girl's parents, Samuel and Monterey (Montie) Cook, would not consider it.

SAHS pursuing repair of Brown monument

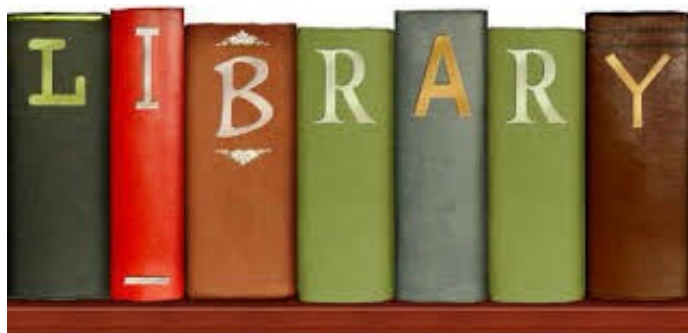

The Springville Area Historical Society (SAHS), meeting Sept. 12, continued to discuss the deteriorating Brown monument at the town cemetery. It marks the grave of Nathan Brown, a Revolutionary War veteran. He died in 1842.

Bev Franks, who is in SAHS and Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR), reported she has contacted the owner of Memorials by Michel in Solon. He will inspect the monument soon and recommend repair options.

Dedication Oct. 10 of a memorial plaque at the Springville Cemetery for Robert L. Newman, a Korean War casualty, was also discussed. (See article, Page 1.)

SAHS has received two welcome gifts, a copy of the Marion Sentinel's 1937 Linn County centennial issue from Pat Klopfenstein of Marion, and an 1880s or '90s stereoscope slide of Springville's Main Street from Max Gramling of La Crescent, Minn.

Others present Sept. 12 were James Crow, president; Jean Schmidt, secretary-treasurer; Karen Taylor, historian; Doug Beard, Rick Heeren, Dave and Eleanor Kelley, Bob and Shirley Parker, Duane Schlatter, and Phil and Karen

Why the Library Matters

This month we are working on a display about why the library matters to our patrons. Is it our book selection? Our computer availability? Our programs? Any reason the library matters to you, we want to hear it. Come fill out a speech bubble to tell us how we impact your life, and we'll display it proudly.

Author Visit

On Saturday, October 28th at 1:00 p.m., we have a visit planned with the Stiletto Girls author troupe. "The Stiletto Girls", C. Deanne Rown, Glenna West, and Maggie Rivers are authors of the "The Stiletto Anthologies", a series of romance novels. The program will feature how these women got started writing these stories, how they got published, and how you can too. Have a question about writing or publishing? They'll try to answer it. Come and join us for a fun, informative fall afternoon.

Voter Registration

Are you 18 or older? Are you a Linn County citizen? Are you registered to vote in Linn County? If not, voter registration forms are available at the library, along with a list of things you should know about voting in Linn County. Pick up yours today.

Friends of the Library Week

October 15-21 is National Friends of the Library week, we are sure grateful for our Friends. The donations they take for sale provide funds for programs and activities. We couldn't do as much for our community without them. So THANKS to our Friends!

Hy-Vee Cash 4 STUDENTS

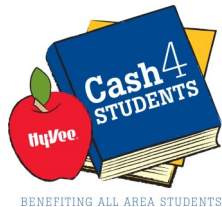

In 2012, the local Cedar Rapids and Marion Hy-Vee Food Stores and Drugstores launched a fantastic fundraiser program for schools called "Cash 4 Students." This program is intended to help area schools raise much needed funding for equipment, supplies, events and any other special project a particular school is working toward.

How can you help?

Simply save your receipts, and turn them into the school of your choice. The school will then total and submit all receipts to Hy-Vee. For every $200 submitted, $1 is earned.

Whether you are a parent, aunt, uncle, grandparent, school volunteer, or friend of a student—everyone is encouraged to participate. With the exceptions of Money Orders, all Hy-Vee receipts from the 13 local Hy-Vee Stores are accepted. This includes: postage, pharmacy, wine/spirits, laundry, Market Grilles, catering orders, general grocery, and gas at the Cedar Rapids and Marion Hy-Vee locations.

You can drop your receipts off at City hall, the Springville Co-op telephone company, the Exchange State Bank, the Security State Bank or the Library.

Fall is Here!

FALL IS HERE!

The changing of weather and seasons is a beautiful time of year, some would even say it is their favorite time of year. The leaves changing colors is an amazing sight, but it can also leave a mess behind (no pun intended). Just a reminder about your leaf pick up, the City of Springville does not allow you to burn your leaves or put them in the street. We don't have the equipment to pick them up. We do have a yard waste site that you are welcome to use. We appreciate your cooperation with this.

YARD WASTE SITE

The City operates a yard waste site for residents to dispose of grass clippings, shrubbery, garden waste, leaves, trees and branches. The site is located at the north end of JR Barnes Parkway. This area is to be used by SPRINGVILLE RESIDENTS ONLY and is NOT FOR GARBAGE. You must divide your yard waste in the appropriate areas: (1) grass, leaves, garden waste, and small brush up to 1/2 inch in diameter, or (2) brush and trees. No yard waste shall be left at the site in any container, such as garbage bags, boxes, garbage cans or other receptacles. All of the by-products resulting from the use and maintenance of the yard waste site (mulch, compost and firewood) may be used at no charge by any City resident.
