Monday Club becomes Monday Nighters

The Monday Nighters Club will meet Tuesday, Sept. 8 (because Sept. 7 is Labor Day) in the Buresh Room at the Springville Memorial Library. Formerly known as Monday Club, the group was renamed after it left the Iowa Federation of Women's Clubs (IFWC) in May.

Officers are Beckie Oksendahl, president; Mary LaGrange, vice president; Karen Theobald, secretary; and Jody Bright, treasurer. Meetings are usually held on the first Monday of the month. The group is open to interested women; call the president, (319) 350-1020, for details about joining.

This is the second-oldest social organization in Springville, having been founded as Monday Club in November 1901. It joined IFWC and also the national organization in April 1915, remaining affiliated for 100 years.

1000 Books Before Kindergarten

Preschoolers & parents are you up for the challenge? This is National program with libraries from all over the country participating. This is a great early literacy program to get the kids excited about reading and hopefully make them lifelong readers. The program is designed for parents and children to do at their own pace. If your child attends the Springville Community School Preschool, the preschool will have all the materials you need to join the program. Daycares and home school families are welcome to join and can pick up their materials at the library. There will be prizes, reading events and lots of fun with books!

A BIG THANKS TO ALL!

A NOTE FROM LINDA:

I WOULD LIKE TO TAKE THIS OPPORTUNITY TO THANK EVERYONE FOR THEIR KIND WORDS AND CONCERN FOLLOWING MY DIAGNOSIS. I FEEL BLESSED TO HAVE SO MUCH SUPPORT AND KNOW IT WILL HELP ME THROUGH THE NEXT FEW MONTHS. THANK YOU SO MUCH. LINDA

Donation Thanks

We've had so many great donations this summer! We want to thank those of you who gave dusting off their shelves and thinking of us!

SAHS draws Visitos from Maine, California-

People from both sides of the U.S. visited the Springville Area Historical Society (SAHS) this summer. Winifred Tate of Waterville, Maine, arrived with RAGBRAI July 24. Darrell Moore and his son Spencer, 18, drove into Springville July 27 from their home in Temecula, Calif., north of San Diego.

Winifred is an assistant professor of anthropology at Colby College in Waterville. Her great-grandfather was William E. "Billy" Bell, a former Springville mayor. She remembers her grandmother, Kathryn Bell Tate (1906-2003), youngest of Billy's four children. Kathryn, a 1924 graduate of Springville High School, earned a home economics degree at Iowa State University. She married Alfred L. Tate and they lived at Davenport.

Billy Bell was born in Clinton County, Iowa, in 1861, son of James A. and Harriet Murray Bell. In 1866, the family settled in the Crabapple area west of Springville. Billy married Jennie Kennedy in 1887, they moved to Springville, and he founded a successful poultry packing plant on the site of today's Lower Butler Park. The other Bell children were Roxsey Ethel (McShane), James W., and Robert P.

Darrell Moore is an attorney with a legal aid service, and Spencer is starting his freshman year of college, studying electrical engineering. Spencer's great-great-great-grandparents were Sylvanus Ward Palmer and Martha Clark Palmer, who lived near Whittier from 1863 until their deaths in 1875 and 1893. They farmed in Section 1 of Marion Township.

Born in New York state, Sylvanus and Martha married in Schenectady in 1836. They also lived in Kane County, Ill., before coming to Linn County, Iowa. Darrell and Spencer are descendants of their oldest child, Harvey Fletcher Palmer, who moved to Chino, Calif., and died in 1919.

Delila Palmer Daniels of Anamosa (formerly of Springville) is a distant cousin of Darrell and Spencer Moore. So was the late Ardis Dawson Clatterbuck, whose mother was a Palmer. However, Wava Palmer Schmidt of Lisbon and her brother, Nyle Palmer of Marion, are from a different Palmer family, not related to Sylvanus Palmer or to Darrell and Spencer Moore.

You're Our Heroes!

Another summer has come to an end and it sure was a fun one! This summer we had so many programs and activities, all about heroes in our every day lives! And so many books were read, our reading logs were filled to the brim! Thanks so much for a great summer! Can't wait til next year!

Please make sure each bag you set curbside has a sticker on it. Bags or containers without a tag will be left curbside. Recycle tubs are available at the Clerk's office for $14 each. A special reminder from Marsha at Rudd: Pickup time begins at 5 am, everything needs to be set out before 5 AM, as routes may vary. Rudd does not recycle glass. Glass containers should be placed in your regular trash container or may be taken free of charge to the Cedar Rapids/Linn County Solid Waste Agency.
