Football weather is here!! What a great time of year. School is in full swing so I guess that means summer is over. It is hard to believe we are halfway through 2022 already.

We have a few more months of taking care of our lawns, so let's keep at them. This is also our Amnesty Day month. That means you can bring your big and bulky items behind City Hall to go to the dump. We will take furniture, appliances (2), computers and TVs.

There is a whole list of items that we will take and some that we won't take listed on page 5 of this newsletter. Also look for flyers around town. We will be doing this Saturday, September 17, 2022 from 7:30AM-11:00AM. Mark your calendars. If you need help with your items, please contact us at City Hall 319-854-6428.

I hope you were able to enjoy some part of the Fun Day weekend. We are always looking to improve. If there is an event you would like to see, let us know. I make no promises, but we would love to have something for everyone. It was a great weekend to get out and enjoy. Thank you to the STPA, the Springville Fire Department, the Parks Board, the Friends of the Parks, the Springville football team, the Junior class, the Springville United Methodist Church, the Springville Wrestling club, Springville Presbyterian Church, and all the performers at Gospel in the Park for working together to make a great weekend.

Our Emmons Park Project is still moving forward. Sometimes it appears to go at a snail's pace, but we are slowly moving towards the finish line. There are plenty of opportunities to volunteer for events or donate some money towards the project. This is truly a community benefit so there is room for everyone.

Your Clerk,

A Thank You from the Springville Tractor Pullers Association

And Fund Days 2022 is a wrap...On behalf of STPA we would like to THANK all of our sponsors, fans, spectators, competitors, workers, volunteers, food groups, the band, Mt. Vernon/Lisbon Ambulance, Springville Fire Department, City of Springville, Springville Community Schools, and anyone else who helped in any way. Without all of this support our Fun Days Celebration would not be as successful. It certainly takes a team effort! Mark your calendars for next year! We are all looking forward to it!

A STROLL THROUGH THE HUNTE

Bob Hunte owned car that had belonged to gangster

When Bob Hunte, 90, was a Springville High School student, he had a black 1937 Lincoln Zephyr. Its former owner was a gangster who had fled Chicago when things got hot, Bob said. Sonny Ebson, the gangster, lived with his girlfriend in Springville. Her surname was Hart, and her parents' home was on the South Side, just south of Briner's store.

Bob paid $150 for the Lincoln, replacing his first car, a Model A Ford. He had spending money in high school because he worked part-time at Don Peterson's filling station, 275 Broadway. Jake Hiner's plumbing and heating business is there now.

Bob's friends loved to ride in the Lincoln. They chipped in to buy gas, he recalls, because the big car got only about 7 miles to the gallon. He owned it for part of a year. One of his pranks was to drive it, with passengers, on the Milwaukee Road tracks from Springville to Anamosa.

HOW DID THEY KNOW a train wasn't coming? "We didn't; we just guessed," Bob said. "I was kind of a wild guy back then." He admits to numerous close brushes with death, one in a deep swimming hole east of Springville and another, as an adult with a chain saw. The latter required major face and neck plastic surgery.

In high school, Bob sang second bass in Bertha Koppenhaver's mixed chorus and boys' quartet, played bass horn in Roy Schwab's band, and at 6 feet tall was on the basketball team. He also enjoyed informal wrestling, boxing, and swimming.

When Bob was in elementary school, he had rheumatic fever and missed much of the school year. As a result, he had to repeat that grade, so he graduated with the class of 1950 rather than '49. He wanted to join the Navy, but was rejected because the rheumatic fever put him at risk for heart disease.

YEISLEY CORRECTION: In the August issue, Arther Yeisley's first name was misspelled, and his wife's maiden surname was given incorrectly. She was Retta Knapp.

Bob met his future wife, Reta Etzel, at a dance at Coggon's Harvest Home. They were married October 25, 1952, in Springville, and had almost 59 years together. Reta died June 24, 2021. Today Bob shares his home with his youngest son, Jim. His other children are John of Cedar Rapids; Mary Ann, St. Louis, Mo.; and Fred, Hiawatha. Son Joe is deceased.

BOB AND JIM HUNTE represent the third and fourth Hunte generations in Springville. Jim's great-grandparents, Fred and Amelia Brenker Hunte, came here with their children, Grace and Ralph, in 1912 from Beecher, Illinois. Fred bought a furniture store and undertaking business from Frank C. Pearson. (It was in the north half of what is now Sally's on Broadway, a restaurant that draws both Springville and out-of-town business.)

The store had a balcony on first floor to display more furniture. The undertaking business was in the basement. Bob does not remember what year it was moved to a double house two buildings south of the telephone company.

Ralph Hunte graduated from Springville, High School in 1916. The U.S. entered World War I the next year. Ralph joined the Navy, serving on a mine-laying ship in the North Sea. Later he was posted on the U.S.S. Olympia, formerly Admiral Dewey's flagship in Manila Bay.

The war ended in 1918, and Ralph worked on trains as a railway mail clerk. In June 1921, he joined his father in business. He married Ina Cecelia Gore, originally from Wapello, August 30, 1924. She had come to Springville as a school teacher.

Sadly, Ralph and Ina's first child, Barbara Lee, died at birth in 1926. Virginia Amelia was born October 10, 1927, and Robert Ralph "Bob" October 2, 1931. Both graduated from Springville High School. Virginia died in Oregon in 1994.

At 83, Fred died in January 1950, after almost 38 years in Springville. At some point, Ralph closed the furniture store, but kept the funeral home until early spring 1965, when he sold it to Murdoch's. Ironically, Ralph died soon after, on April 18, 1965. He was 67, and had been first a partner and then sole owner of the funeral home almost 44 years. Springville had a Hunte funeral home from 1912 to 1965. It was one of the town's longest existing businesses.

F. G. HUNTE & SON

Springville, Iowa

May 1927 advertisement for ambulance service, from the Springville New Era. "Son" was Ralph Hunte. No phone number is given; people probably rang Central and asked to be connected to the ambulance number.

FRED HUNTE'S PARENTS, Ludwig Hunte and Dorothea Ebeling, were born in Lower Saxony, Germany. A river named Hunte ran through that area. The German pronunciation is "Hoon-tuh". Ludwig and Dorothea came to Illinois in the early 1850's, and married in Chicago Oct. 30, 1857.

GRACE HUNTE WAS the daughter of Fred and sister of Ralph. She graduated from Coe College and taught for several years. On January 20, 1927, she married Elmer Wellner. He was a bookkeeper at the Springville elevator, and Grace was instrumental in founding the Springville Memorial Library.

Iowa School Bus Laws

When you meet an oncoming school bus displaying flashing amber lights, you must slow down to no more than 20 mph and be prepared to stop. If the red lights are flashing or if the stop arm is out, you must come to a complete stop at least 15 feet from the bus. You must remain stopped as long as the red lights flash or the stop arm is out.

The only exception to this is where you are approaching the bus from the opposite direction on a road with at least two lanes in each direction.

When overtaking a school bus, you may not pass when red or amber warning lights are flashing.

After a school bus has stopped to let students off, watch for children on the side of the road.
